Congressman Dent congratulates House leadership for the 110th Congress

WASHINGTON, D.C. — U.S. Rep. Charlie Dent (PA-15) today congratulated his colleagues in the Republican and Democratic caucuses who won election to leadership this week, and urged all his colleagues to engage in principled, civil discussion on America's priorities in the 110th Congress.

Congressman Dent expressed his support for the elected House Minority Leader, John Boehner of Ohio, and Minority Whip Roy Blunt of Missouri.

"I believe Congressmen Boehner and Blunt will work to unite our caucus behind the core values we share with most Americans — fiscal responsibility and growth-oriented economic policy, as well as strong national defense and homeland security," Congressman Dent said. "I look forward to working with them in accomplishing these goals."

Congressman Dent also congratulated the elected Majority Leader Steny Hoyer (D-MD) and presumed Speaker Nancy Pelosi (D-CA). If elected when the 110th Congress convenes in January, Ms. Pelosi would become the first woman in history to lead the House of Representatives.

"I have always prided myself on being able to work across the aisle to accomplish my constituents' priorities," Congressman Dent said. "There will times of agreement and disagreement, and I will stick to my principles and support legislation I think is good for the country. My hope is we all work together and find common ground for the common good.”
